

ST. JOHN'S PORT AUTHORITY

2016-2017 FISHERIES AND MARINE INSTITUTE OF MEMORIAL UNIVERSITY SCHOLARSHIP AWARDS

The St. John's Port Authority (SJPA) is pleased to announce the recipients of its two $1,000.00 scholarships for the 2016-2017 scholarship year, tenable at the Fisheries and Marine Institute of Memorial University. The recipients are Mr. Benjamin Elliot of Appleton, NL, who is in his fourth year of the Nautical Science Program; and Mr. Ben Tobin of Epworth, NL, in his second year of the Nautical Science Program.

Mr. Sean Hanrahan, President & CEO, congratulates Mr. Elliot on his academic excellence.

Mr. Sean Hanrahan, President & CEO, congratulates Mr. Tobin on his academic excellence.

Since becoming a Canada Port Authority in 1999, the SJPA has contributed $85,000 to students pursuing post-secondary studies. The St. John's Port Authority is a financially self-sufficient Federal agency deriving all revenues solely from operations, and reinvesting all earnings into Port infrastructure and operations. As a result of the SJPA's effective stewardship of the Port's infrastructure, and the invaluable endeavours of the Port community, the Port of St. John's has an estimated economic impact on the province of $397 million per annum, with an associated 3,890 direct and indirect jobs.
